Customer Reviews

This cookbook is truly a work of art and you can tell that Jenni has poured her heart and mind into it. If I can say one thing about it, it's this - I have a TON of paleo/gluten free cookbooks and THIS one is going to be the one that I will use continuously for the rest of my life. Every birthday or celebration, this baby is going to be pulled out. Want to try your hand at Paleo Double Chocolate Blackberry Cream Puffs (or any variation of it for that matter)? There's a recipe or 10 for that. Something more simple like a basic baguette (um hello puffy bread that I've been missing) or popover? Literally the list goes on from the most decadent pastries, to single layered or 3 layered cakes, ice creams, marshmallows, pizza crusts, and more! One of the things that is great is that there are options for EVERYTHING. Everything in the book is gluten free and dairy free, and there are variations of recipes to make them nut-free or dairy-free to. But more than just dietary options though, the options that I really LOVE are that Jenni gives you the basic recipes (ex: chocolate cake, vanilla cake) and then the advanced recipes based off of those (Chocolate Cherry Naked Cake, Neopolitan Cake, etc.) AND THEN she gives you a "Build Your Own ---" pages! This is where the gold is and what you will truly use for the rest of your life. She has "Build your Own Cake", "Build Your Own Choux" for pastries, and "Build your Own Tarts" pages. Seriously brilliant. Just the other day I used that section to make my husband his birthday cake - a 2 layer chocolate cake with French Buttercream filling and frosting. It was one of the most moist and delicious chocolate cakes that I've ever eaten!
