One Pan To Rule Them All: 100 Cast-Iron Skillet Recipes For Indoors And Out

Synopsis

Let's face it. If your kitchen had just one pan, one single tool to accomplish any cooking concoction you dare to dream, it should be a pretty awesome one, right? The chosen one, the golden child, the king of the ring, the one true pan to rule them all! It should be a cast-iron skillet! Cast-iron cookware is a proven hero, never goes out of style, and cannot be destroyed despite how you feel about yourself as a home cook. In this book, Howie Southworth and Greg Matza's best friends and adventurous home cooks share one hundred recipes for cooking in a skillet on the stovetop or outdoors on a grill or campfire. Here you'll find easy-to-follow recipes for: Spinach and cheddar frittata, Cajun biscuits and gravy, Heavy metal pizza, Creole jambalaya, Bacon fried steak, Blackened catfish, Crispy mac and cheese, Peach cobbler, Campfire taquitos, And more!

Skyhorse Publishing, along with our Good Books and Arcade imprints, is proud to publish a broad range of cookbooks, including books on juicing, grilling, baking, frying, home brewing and winemaking, slow cookers, and cast iron cooking. We've been successful with books on gluten-free cooking, vegetarian and vegan cooking, paleo, raw foods, and more. Our list includes French cooking, Swedish cooking, Austrian and German cooking, Cajun cooking, as well as books on jerky, canning and preserving, peanut butter, meatballs, oil and vinegar, bone broth, and more. While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller, we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home.

This cookbook has been extremely fun to explore with. At first glance I expected standard run of the mill recipes for cook outs and camping...boy was I surprised. While there are recipes to be used over an open fire, this book exposes all the great uses of the black iron skillet in your kitchen! Who would have thought about making lasagna in a skillet? But even the lasagna had twists on the recipe. Even the traditional type recipes have twists in the ingredients. As an example, it would be no surprise to find a recipe for fried chicken in this type of cookbook, but this recipe has some crazy good flavors I could not have imagined (don't want to give away the recipe!). My 6 year old said they were "the best chicken fingers she ever had! What makes this cookbook even more fun is the two authors share an anecdote on each recipe about where they got the idea, or a story about the first time they made it. I spent an hour just going through the cookbook and reading the anecdotes. The two authors clearly enjoy cooking and they bring that enthusiasm to you in their personal stories. I have now made 5 or six of the items in the cookbook and they have all been hits! Get this cookbook for your kitchen.

"One Pan to Rule Them All" is the only cookbook you will ever need. It covers all meals, from the start of your day to the very end. In addition, it will satisfy any Life Style. To make your prep even easier, all you need is One Pan. It really means only One Pan. As far as the recipes.....well, all you have to do is try them and you will be hooked on this type of cooking. They will satisfy any pallet. This book guides you through the purchasing and care of your Cast-Iron, as well. Worth the purchase and you will enjoy.

I was given this book as a gift. As I looked through it, everything seemed so simple it was difficult to decide what to make first. I started to fold down pages to mark what I wanted to make. I realized I was folding down most of the pages! I decided to make the Lobster Pot Pie. I have to admit, I have no patience, so I used a puff pastry dough I had on hand but the next time I make it I promise to make my own crust. When I asked my husband how it was he said, "OMG, that was F@%king awesome!". So now I am feeling a bit like the movie Julie and Julia, what to make next and how long will it take me to get through the book. I have decided.....I am making Shepard's Pie, tomorrow night and I will post my results. I must thank my friend Niki, for the gift and Greg for the inscription.

Awesome cookbook!! Love it! Love it! Love it!

Great Recipes!!
